Union: BCNU Collective Agreement

North Okanagan Hospice Society Offers:

- *Quality end-of-life care to the dying and their loved ones
- *A team environment where caring, integrity, cooperation and humour are valued
- * A workplace where individual contributions are appreciated
- *Opportunities for continuous learning and professional development

Qualifications

- *Graduation from an approved School of Nursing with current practicing registration with the BC College of Nurses and Midwives (BCCNM)
- *Availability to work 8 hour day, evening and night shifts
- *Physical and emotional ability to perform the duties of the position
- *Enthusiasm for learning and working in a team environment
- *Ability to establish and maintain rapport with clients and families
- *Ability to work independently and to act as a shift team lead
- *Effective verbal and written communication skills
- *Ability to organize and prioritize
- *Hospice palliative care training as asset
- *Recent acute care and/or end-of-life care experience as asset
- *All staff must provide evidence that they have complied with the Province of British Columbia Public Health Office immunization and tuberculosis control programs prior to employment

Please send your resume, cover letter, BCCNM registration and a short description of your philosophy of care for those facing end-of-life by email only to:
